

PATRICK RICARDO SMITH,

Plaintiff,

v.

DOUG WALKER, et al.,

Defendants.

This rule requires that if the Plaintiff has any evidence to offer to counter the evidence contained in the Motion for Summary Judgment and supporting documents filed by Defendants, he must present it to the Court in the form of documents, affidavits, or unsworn declarations under penalty of perjury. An affidavit is a written statement made under oath; that is, a statement prepared in writing by the Plaintiff and sworn before a Notary Public. If the Plaintiff chooses, he may instead submit an unsworn declaration and state the following with the date and his signature:

"I declare under penalty of perjury that the foregoing is true and correct."

PLAINTIFF SMITH READ THIS:

The Plaintiff is further hereby advised that he has thirty (30) days from the filing of this Order in which to file documents, affidavits, or unsworn declarations in opposition to Defendants' Motion for Summary Judgment. FAILURE TO RESPOND WITHIN THIS TIME PERIOD MAY SUBJECT THIS ACTION TO SUMMARY JUDGMENT.

THEREFORE, IT IS HEREBY ORDERED that the Plaintiff has thirty (30) days from the filing of this Order in which to provide his own documents, affidavits, or declarations countering the evidence offered by Defendants' Motion for Summary Judgment. (Doc. Nos. 24 and 25.)

Signed: August 16, 2010

Graham C. Mullen
United States District Judge

